

Business in Anguilla: an opportunity to establish an international trading company (IBC)

With business opportunities on Anguilla becoming more and more plentiful every day, one of the strongest tools for international entrepreneurs is the establishment of an International Business Company (IBC), which was previously known as an offshore company. There are more than 25 thousand IBCs registered and operating on the island, providing a stable and efficient environment for your business to thrive.

The main advantages of your IBC

- similarity with English partners: Anguilla is one of the parts of the United Kingdom that provides your company with identical benefits that are available on the popular islands of England;
- tax priorities: companies and individuals on Anguilla are exempt from tax liabilities and do not pay income tax.

Peculiarities of functioning of your International Trade Company

- simplified registration conditions, which provide for a single director and shareholder, both of whom may be the same person;
- an adaptive ownership structure that allows your beneficiaries and IBC shareholders to be citizens of other countries, both individuals and legal entities;
- unlimited scope of activities, which allows the legal right to conduct various legitimate activities, including those not approved in the constituent documents;
- non-disclosure of personal data on owners and managers, which are available exclusively to representatives of the registration authorities;
- priority and permission, at the legislative level, to use nominee services; RegService: reliability of partnership in business development

The equity of your IBC

- unlimited size: there are no financial restrictions on the amount of authorized capital;
- loyalty, which allows the issue of shares with or without announcements of the nominal price;
- payment of authorized capital is not required;

International Trading Company and Peculiarities of its Management

- flexibility of management or shareholder meetings, which is manifested in the ability to hold them as needed from anywhere in the world;
- information about the beneficiaries and shareholders remains hidden at all stages of the company's operations;

Why should you use the help of professionals?

1. High level of knowledge in their field. Specialists have unique skills and knowledge that allow them to effectively solve problems of varying complexity. If you had a good hairdresser, you would hardly cut your own hair. It is quite a logical decision to outsource the creation of IBCs to professionals who are thoroughly versed in this issue.
2. Significant savings not only in time, but also in energy and moral resources. It is not rational to waste your energy, time and health on something that can be done quickly and efficiently by specialists. By delegating responsibility for the IBC process to professionals, our clients can concentrate on their strengths.
3. Individual approach to each client. We provide personalized solutions that take into account the specific needs of each client. The algorithm of our cooperation is based on planning the work of our specialists according to the individual requirements of each customer. As a result, professionals provide solutions that meet personal goals and objectives.
4. Minimizing risks. Working with specialized professionals who have experience in solving various tasks in this area significantly reduces, and in some cases eliminates, the likelihood of making any mistakes. This feature is important in certain areas where the consequences of mistakes can be quite negative for the business and financial well-being of the company owner. Our specialists guarantee complete safety of your actions and exclude any unpleasant surprises.
5. Compliance with trends and innovations in the industry. RegService specialists always have up-to-date information, know the trends and innovations in their field of expertise. Therefore, cooperation with us can ensure your business is highly competitive and relevant.

We suggest that you do not deal with IBC registration on your own. Leave this work to the professionals of RegService, and enjoy a positive result at the end of our cooperation.

RegService Law Firm: why is it worth cooperating with us?

1. Opportunity to generate additional income through substantial commissions on profits.
2. Expansion and diversification of clients. If you have a large portfolio of clients or are a representative of a related industry, partnering with us will expand your business contacts and provide you with access to new potential customers.
3. Opportunity to participate in large-scale projects. If our client is one of the representatives of a large holding company, RegService can offer to place orders on a regular basis, subject to participation in our company's projects.
