

Profitable GDPR Compliance solution from our company

GDPR Compliance from our firm is considered a comprehensive solution for many IT firms. It allows you to comply with all requirements regarding the protection of personal information. Our firm's lawyers will guide your firm through each step, they will review the project activities, and they will be able to effectively implement the necessary changes.

Today, questions regarding the security of information are quite a priority. Therefore, if you order our services, we will ensure compliance with current legislation, plus enhance your firm's image.

Security of information is a high priority today.

Information security: the main aspects of GDPR Compliance from our company

GDPR Compliance from our firm – is a great solution to comply with the requirements of personal information protection with the country's legislation. The services of our firm are considered to be in demand among many companies, various online stores dealing with user information.

Our firm's services are in demand among many companies, various online stores dealing with user information.

1. Protects against possible risks. Our experts advise, advise on how to use the law on the protection of personal information. They also help organizations avoid legal risks.
2. Researches, maps the data. Our employees conduct a thorough audit of the project work, make a detailed map with information, where the received, processed data is recorded. This is the basis for the next stages of work.
3. Actively responds to the needs of the project.
4. Effectively responds to changes. Since the legislation of our country is changing rapidly, we try to create a plan regarding the changes, prepare the firm for the necessary requirements, provide services to keep GDPR Compliance up to date.
5. And we are able to respond to the changes.
6. Promote image, investment attractiveness. As we implement the principles of the European regulation, we ensure that firms comply with current legislation and develop a good image. This attracts more investment, strengthens relations with partners.

As the value of data continues to grow and regulations become more stringent, GDPR Compliance – is an urgent task for a firm that wants to adhere to high security standards and gain more trust from clients.

With GDPR Compliance – it is an urgent task for a firm that wants to adhere to high security standards and gain more trust from clients.

With us, your firm will have the support of legal counsel, a solid foundation to succeed in the digital sphere, where information security is essential for long-term growth.

What do we do to protect our customers' information

To do this, we implement:

1. Legal due diligence. Our employees provide clients with professional advice on the use of legislation regarding the protection of personal information. Specialists analyze all aspects of the client's activities, taking into account all legal requirements.
2. Analysis of all aspects of the client's activities, taking into account all legal requirements.
3. Specialized audit. The procedure of GDPR Compliance system implementation implies an in-depth analysis of the client's project. Specialists of our firm not only identify risks, they also make a thorough map with information. This makes it possible to identify the changes needed to comply with GDPR Compliance.
4. Development of personalized documentation. Specialists are engaged in the development, customization of the necessary documentation, including policies, taking into account the needs of the client. Our staff will competently prepare key documentation with full legal transparency.
5. Customized documentation.
6. Competent management of possible risks. Our experts assess the current state of the firm, identify risks, develop tactics to manage these risks. This makes it possible to choose reliable steps, to reduce risks, to protect data.
7. Interaction with relevant authorities. Employees interact with the relevant authorities in the field of personal information protection. Specialists support the client, take an active part in working with the relevant authorities.
8. Support for the client, take an active part in working with the relevant authorities.
9. Online support, customer service. Our company provides each client with online support, customer service. We guarantee relevance, comply with GDPR requirements during the entire process of cooperation. Specialists promptly respond to any changes in legislation, take into account the needs of the customer's business.
10. Innovative solutions. Our firm provides clients with innovative, technological solutions in the field of personal information protection. Thanks to this, our company's services are legally effective.
11. An innovative solution.
12. Business Protection. Thanks to the implementation of GDPR, the business complies with the law, strengthening the company's defense against possible threats.

All of this is considered important today, as the value of any information is increasing and regulations are becoming stricter.

What documentation and information is required to implement GDPR?

To successfully deliver GDPR services, clients need to have the following papers, data:

1. Customer identification information. Full company name, legal address, contact information for communication.
2. Documents that certify the authority of the customer. A copy of the articles of incorporation.
3. A copy of the articles of incorporation.
4. Structure of personal information processing. Detailed data on how the firm collects, processes, stores personal information of partners, customers.
5. Documents that certify the authorization of the customer.
6. Documents on the actual state. Descriptions of how data is collected, processed. Maps of information that demonstrates the flow of data in the firm.
7. Existing legal documents. Copies of all policies, processes that relate to the processing of personal information. A valid contract with the information processors.

8. A valid contract with the information processors.
9. Detailed data about the IT infrastructure. List of systems and technologies used. Description of information protection measures.
10. Results of the state of the firm, risk assessment. Conducted an audit of the state of the firm, where all detected risks are assessed. A plan of change.
11. Authorization that gives the ability to interact with regulatory authorities. Signed power of attorney to represent the interests of the customer before the relevant authorities.

These elements are considered key, provide our company with a complete picture, and enable us to implement the GDPR system with the least amount of complexity.

These elements are considered key, provide our company with a complete picture, and enable us to implement the GDPR system with the least amount of complexity.

Steps of our company's service delivery

All work with the client is divided into certain stages. Our specialists carry it out in sequence:

1. Provide the first consultation. Identify the customer's needs, discuss the main aspects of GDPR. Clarify the main points, describe the benefits of cooperation.
2. Provide a first consultation.
3. Prepare a comprehensive proposal. Develop a customized GDPR implementation plan for a particular business. Formulate a commercial proposal, specify clear stages, the price of the service.
4. Collaborate on the proposal.
5. Sign a contract with the client. Prepare, discuss the terms of the agreement. Conclude the contract with the customer, approve it.
6. Agreement with the customer.
7. Receive initial information, documents from the client. The customer gives the specialists the necessary information, documentation. Employees help to fill out the documents correctly, hand them over.
8. Assist in the legal process.
9. They conduct legal due diligence. Fully investigate the activities of the client, process personal information. They compile Initial Data Mapping, which makes it possible to record the current state.
10. Compile the Initial Data Mapping.
11. Develop, customize documents. Compose, finalize the necessary documents. Personalize documentation, taking into account the unique features of the customer's business.
12. Implement changes. Assist in the implementation of changes, taking into account the requirements of GDPR. Train employees of the customer's company on the necessary rules and procedures.
13. Provide support in implementing the changes, taking into account the requirements of GDPR.
14. Provide support, counseling. Support constantly online, advise on GDPR issues. In case of certain changes in the legislation, they respond quickly, make amendments.
15. Actively respond.
16. Interact with regulatory authorities. Provide legal support if regulatory authorities pay attention. Prepare the necessary documentation, data to help interact properly with the regulatory authorities.
17. Assist in the preparation of the necessary documentation, data to help interact properly with regulatory authorities.
18. Make sure GDPR is up to date. Regularly check, update GDPR, taking into account changes in legislation, the development of the customer's business.

This algorithm of actions allows the customer to receive comprehensive, high-quality support at all stages, minimizing their involvement in various processes.

All of these actions allow the customer to receive comprehensive, high-quality support at all stages, minimizing their involvement in various processes.

What does the client get after our services?

After our specialists provide the necessary services, the client receives:

1. A clear plan on how to comply with GDPR. The plan outlines all the actions, tailored to the client's business.
2. Documents, policies. Prepared documentation, agreements with information processors and other policies that are customized for the client's firm.
3. Data map. This map shows the flow of personal information in the firm, indicating where changes may be made.
4. Legal Due Diligence Results. A thorough report regarding the results of the due diligence, the risks, and suggestions to address them.
5. Training, support. Training of employees on the latest technologies, continuous online support, consultations from specialists.
6. Additional training, support.
7. Documents needed to deal with regulatory agencies. These documents give the opportunity to interact with regulatory authorities without problems, to receive legal support.
8. Compliance with all the latest technologies, constant online support, consultations from specialists.
9. Compliance with all GDPR regulations.
10. Reports, summaries. The client receives constant reports on how the GDPR is being complied with, how correctly, securely the information is processed.
11. Reports, summaries.
12. Documentation on paper, in electronic form. All necessary documentation is provided to the client in an easy-to-use form.
13. All necessary documentation is provided to the client.

This list of results guarantees that each customer receives professional advice, effective tools, methods that allow competent compliance with GDPR, risk management.

Why order GDPR from our company?

Many clients turn to us, as the company has the following advantages:

1. Professional approach. Specialists of our company have great experience, they effectively implement GDPR.
2. Saving time, finances. You should not study the legislation, development of documents on your own. It is better to entrust this process to professionals, which will save money.
3. Positive result. Our company guarantees compliance with GDPR, compliance with high standards and current legislation.
4. An individual approach.
5. Individual approach. Any business is considered unique, and our experts develop personal solutions each time, taking into account the specifics of the client's business, minimize risks, improve efficiency.
6. An individual approach.

7. Transparency of each process, confidence. The professionalism of our employees allows the customer to be confident in the work, trust our company.

Don't put off contacting us until later. Provide your company with complete security, protection right now.

Partner program offered by our company

Do you have several clients, a related field or a large holding with regular orders? We want to offer you a profitable cooperation. Our company values the actions, connections of each customer, so we offer customers to participate in the partner program. In it, customers can share their income.

Our company offers customers:

- confidentiality, high quality services;
- quick fulfillment of all orders;
- profitable terms of cooperation, taking into account the uniqueness of the client's business.

To become our partner, you need to contact a specialist, describe your company, needs. Our company develops individual proposals, offers customers favorable terms of cooperation.

Our company chooses the most favorable conditions of cooperation.

- having a wealth of experience, high expertise in the field of IT jurisprudence;
- personal approach to all clients, partners;
- constant desire to improve, use only new technologies in the field of legal services.

We advise you to join the partnership program offered by our firm today. Together we can create a mutually beneficial, successful cooperation.